

NEWS FROM LA ESCUELITA JULY 2025

With great sadness we need to let you know that our dear friend, Bev Kirkman, fought the good fight but passed away on July 4. Since 2005, when she first visited the school, she was an important part of the La Escuelita and Scholarship project. Many of you have received her thank you letters over the years. She is greatly missed.

New Volunteer To Receive And Process Donations

We welcome Lloyd Croft as our new volunteer for receiving and accounting for your donations. Lloyd and his wife have been donors for several years, and we are glad to welcome him as part of our Escuelita Team.

The Rights of Children in Nicaragua

- The right to live with my family
- The right to health
- The right to an education
- The right to freedom of expression
- The right to name and nationality
- The right to play and practice a sport
- The right to food
- The right to report abuse
- The right to protection
- The right to respect of my body

Children have Rights under Nicaraguan law, and La Escuelita works to make sure that the children know their rights.

As part of their “Right to Food” the children receive a full, freshly cooked lunch every day.

Followed by brushing their teeth.
